FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WI BAND, THE DAREDEVIL CHRISTOPHER WRIGHT, NEW SINGLE, TOUR

Eau Claire, WI. Local band, The Daredevil Christopher Wright, not to be confused with the actual late motorcycle-riding, cliff-jumping, stunt-marvel, Christopher Wright of the early part of the 20th century, have released a new single from their forthcoming debut full-length album, In Deference to a Broken Back. The song is called "The East Coast". The band is also gearing up for a small tour at the end of this month that they've cleverly dubbed The Midwest Knows Tour (dates below).

The Daredevil Christopher Wright is an indie-rock (with a tint of mom's gospel and a touch of dad's folk) band made up of three dudes from Northwestern Wisconsin, who have recently completed the recording of their soon to come album, which was recorded in a house somewhere in St. Paul, MN and was mixed by fellow Eau Claire musician, Justin Vernon of acclaimed Bon Iver.
